I always lock my vehicle but I must have pressed the wrong button on my key fob while the keys were in my pocket. This morning I noticed the center console lifted open. A ball cap that was inside there was later found by my son, under a small palm tree located next to my driveway where I park my truck. I called CVPD and was told I would be getting a call back tomorrow. "

August 9, 2019

Never thought I would have to right my on post but here it goes... Today Thursday August the 7th at 3:18 pm 3 African American males tried to get in to our house, they even jumped into our backyard and looked into our living room. As this was transpiring my husband called 911 and it took the police 30 MINUTES to get there. Please take a look at the videos and pictures and if you see them or know them let us and the police know.
